Jalon Valley Real Estate are pleased to offer this beautiful detached 132m2 villa that is situated on a sought after development on the outskirts of the traditional Spanish Village of Alcalali with its vast array of tapas bars, restaurants and amenities.

This delightfully presented family home is located in a wonderful position that offers stunning views of the Jalon Valley and mountains. The relatively flat and low maintenance 832m2 grounds to the property are completely enclosed and feature an array of Mediterranean plants, trees and shrubs to include orange trees. The stunning 8m x 4m private pool has a large terraced area and the gardens offer various places to take in the sun or much needed shade.

The spacious accommodation to the property includes a large lounge with feature fireplace and dining area, double doors from this room lead out to the covered terrace that is perfect for al fresco dining on long summer evenings, a fully fitted and equipped kitchen, a lovely master suite with en suite shower room, two further double bedrooms, a guest shower room and a smaller room that is currently used as an office.

The property has lots of special features to include oil fuelled central heating, fitted wardrobes, a large storage under build, a gated driveway, mosquito nets, sun blinds and double glazing.

Viewings are strongly recommended so this competitively priced and perfectly located property can be fully appreciated.
